

L. P. Fisher, newspaper advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

THE DOOR WAS SHUT.

A few days ago a man with a young wife and no funds shot himself at the Grand Hotel in San Francisco. When he was buried no clergyman in San Francisco would say a prayer by the coffin.

The bereaved widow said to an Examiner reporter:

"They try to say my husband was a bad man, but I who knew him best know that he was not. He died for me. His death was Christianlike; and no church would bury him, no minister would say a prayer over his poor dead body, because he was a suicide—because he died for me. Doesn't Christ say, 'Greater love hath no man than this, that a man should lay down his life for another?' But the holy ministers refused to say a kind word over him. I have always liked to go to church, but I will never as long as I live put my foot inside of another church. I feel that it is cowardly of me to live. I know that if I had died he would have killed himself, and I feel that he had expected me to follow him, though he did not say so. Maybe he is waiting for me in that somewhere that comes after this life. Maybe he is reproaching me for not coming."

When the church discarded the poor fellow and did not even console the widow, the police detectives extended the right hand of sympathy.

When a rascal who has robbed and plundered everybody all his life dies, and about half an hour before he kicks the bucket, calls for ministers and says he is sorry for his sins, he is received in full fellowship with the church and the ministers devote an hour telling in their sermons how good he was. Why should the door be shut to the poor suicide?

THE NEWSPAPER ANNUAL.

Now is the time when the Eastern Newspaper Advertising Annuals are flooding the country with their circulars soliciting advertising from the press.

The advertising agencies started out for the ostensible purpose of getting advertising for the papers, but now they turn round and want the papers to support them by their advertising patronage. No country newspaper in its ordinary senses would ever think of advertising in one of those annuals; the adv. if it did anything would simply bring a lot of patent medicine trade to the paper, and any publisher knows from experience that this class of advertising is comparatively worthless. They all want the best places on the page for about one quarter what home merchants pay, and if you ever collect from them you are in great luck.

These newspaper annuals simply fatten off the credulity and innocence of tenderfoot publishers.

EDITORIAL MENTION.

The men who are now feeding at the Administration pie counter should be spotted for future reference.

The men who downed silver in the House are now moving up to the President's pie counter to get their first square meal.

Congress of the Wave. San Francisco, and the ex-Minister of Greece had a fist fight on Market Street. The editor only left a grease spot of his opponent.

Although the purchasable material in the House has bowed down to the gold of Great Britain, there is still a feeling left that we can depend on the Senate to stand by the United States.

These are great days for agitation. Monster meetings during the week at Chautauqua, New York; Mount Gretna and Erie, Pennsylvania; Sylvan Beach, and in Cooper Union, New York City, and the large mass meeting in Omaha. Our friends are sowing the seed for next year's great silver party harvest.

Sacramento has shown itself a live, progressive city by voting to use pure water instead of the coffee-colored waters of the Sacramento. It would not be considered very live or progressive in any other town, but when Sacramento wakes up for a time and brushes a fly off its nose, the action attracts attention all over the Coast.

For Rent.

Parties desiring furnished rooms for housekeeping should apply at the White House. Terms on application. j2tf

DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

Will sell goods so cheap, that you will be amazed at your own stupidity in having patronized high-priced establishments. These are grinding times and it behooves you to place your money where it will do the most good.

We are selling best two and four point BARBED WIRE at 4 1-4 cents per pound. The oldest inhabitant will tell you that this is remarkably cheap, unparalleled in the history of Carson.

We have reduced the prices of everything we carry in stock; Groceries, Provisions, Liquors, Hardware, Tinware, Crockery, Paints, Oils, Wall Paper, etc., can be purchased at this Emporium at a less percentage of profit than elsewhere. No necessity for sending your money to California, thinking you can save something for we will be more than pleased to duplicate your bill.

Give us a trial order and make your comparisons with purchases at home or abroad and be convinced. Orders from the country, as well as Carson and its environs will receive our prompt attention.
